TO THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON:

The petition of Lynn Ann Hust shows:

1. Petitioner makes this application for a writ of habeas corpus, restoration of freedom and liberty and all other effective relief possible within the powers of this Honorable Court on the grounds that petitioner is unlawfully detained and restrained of her liberty by an unlawful conspiracy agreement entered into by and between Respondents Bohling, Hageman, Smith and unnamed divers others;

that because Respondents Bohling, Hageman, Smith and unnamed divers others willfully and intentionally disguised their conspiracy under color of State Law and Federal Interstate Extradition Law; willfully and intentionally caused the arrest of petitioner within the federal jurisdiction of this Honorable Court on May 1, 2006 and June 13, 2008; willfully and intentionally caused Respondent Democratic Governor Dave Freudenthal to make a demand on Respondent Democratic Governor Christine O. Gregoire to cause petitioner to be “arrested and secured” after petitioner was already “arrested and secured” in violation of federal interstate extradition law, it is axiomatic that the court shall have jurisdiction under Respondent State of Washington’s “long-arm statute”; the Federal Constitution and the laws of conspiracy to summon or otherwise order any and all Respondents to appear and show cause why the relief being sought herein should not be granted; that the court’s jurisdiction is further found under the following Laws of Congress:

28 U.S.C. § 1331 (Federal question).
28 U.S.C.A. § 1332 (Diversity of citizenship).
28 U.S.C.A. § 1337 (Commerce).
28 U.S.C.A. § 1366 (Construction of references to laws of the United States or Acts of Congress).
28 U.S.C.A. § 1367 (Supplemental jurisdiction)
28 U.S.C.A. § 1651 (All Writs Act).
28 U.S.C.A. §§ 2254(a), (b)(1)(B)(i) and (b)(1)(B)(ii).
28 U.S.C.A. §§ 2241(a) and (c)(3).
Rules 17, 18, 19, 20 and 21, Fed.R.Civ.P.;

that complete and effective relief is specifically authorized by:

28 U.S.C.A. § 1651 (All Writs Act).
28 U.S.C.A. § 2201 (Creation of a remedy).
28 U.S.C.A. § 2202 (Further relief).
Boumediene v. Bush, 553 U.S.____, 2008 U.S. LEXIS 4887, 76 U.S.L.W. 4406, 21 Fla. L. Weekly Fed. S 329 (U.S. June 12, 2008).

that in pursuit of said unlawful agreement, the aforementioned unlawful cabal has been, and continues to use, the official public capacities, facilities and assets and the private capacities, facilities and assets of the remaining named Respondents to facilitate accomplishing the purpose, goals and objects of their unlawful conspiracy; and to use the same for cover and concealment;

that Respondents have refused to take action designed to protect the integrity of their respective official capacities and judicial systems and to cause the abandonment of the alleged unlawful conspiracy after having received actual and or constructive notice of the unlawful cabal's constitutional violations from the United States District Court for the Southern District of California in August 2006;

that after being told and given irrefutable evidence, including incriminating documents prepared by the unlawful cabal that admitted the purpose, means, and objects of the unlawful agreement and the overt acts done to further the aims of the unlawful conspiracy, the passive and active negligence and maladministration of Respondent States, Governors, County Boards, City Councils, Police Department and courts resulted in petitioner suffering aggravating injuries when petitioner was rearrested on June 13, 2008 based on the same set of facts, evidence and overt acts that led to the first unlawful arrest and detention on May 1, 2006; and that petitioner is currently and effectively under restraint of her liberty by the members of the unlawful conspiracies that brought about the unlawful arrests and detentions on May 1, 2006 and June 13, 2008.

2. Petitioner is now in the custody of the members of the unlawful conspiracies that brought about the unlawful arrests and detentions on May 1, 2006 and June 13, 2008; the warrant of the Honorable Wyoming State Judge Robert A. Castor; and the passive and active negligence and maladministration of all of the named Respondents; that on June 16, 2008, Respondent District Court, County of Clark, State of Washington, ordered petitioner to custody on bail in the City of Battle Ground, County of Clark, State of Washington and to return to Respondent District Court on July 16, 2008;

that on June 18, 2008, Respondent Office of the Clark County Prosecuting Attorney, County of Clark, State of Washington obtained a court order directing the petitioner to return to District Court on June 24, 2008 at 1:00 pm to conduct a "REVIEW OF GOVERNORS' WARRANT", notwithstanding the court date of July 16, 2008 previously set;

that on June 24, 2008, petitioner appeared before Respondent District Court, County of Clark, State of Washington; and that Respondent District Court, acting through the Honorable Judge Vernon L. Schreiber: (1) reviewed the "Governors' Warrants"; (2) discovered the warrants had been suppressed and secreted away for two years; (3) found the warrants were never served or enforced by any of the Respondents; (4) declined to take custody of petitioner based on these stale warrants; (5) ordered petitioner back to custody on the unlawful out-of-state warrant of Judge Castor and bail in accordance with the terms previously set; (6) ordered petitioner to return to Respondent Superior Court, County of Clark, State of Washington; and (7) forwarded the secret, suppressed and stale "Governors Warrants" to Respondent Superior Court, who, since July 2006, has refused to serve and enforce these very secret, suppressed and stale warrants and has never been ordered to enforce these secret, suppressed and stale warrants by any of the named Respondents, including Respondent County and Prosecuting Attorney Richard C. Bohling, on whose behalf these warrants were obtained and issued.

3. The cause or pretext of petitioner's detention and restraint is a false and fraudulent claim that petitioner violated her sovereign corporate capacity as the Chief Executive Officer of Events WorldWide, a Wyoming Corporation, by using company checks written to benefit Events WorldWide, to commit three counts of check fraud, when in fact the opposite is true.

4. Petitioner was, in 2004, lawfully lured into the State of Wyoming under provisions of the Workforce Investment Act of 1998 (WIA of 1998), Title 29 U.S.C.A.

§ 2801 et seq. by unnamed members of another unlawful WIA cabal operating out of the Laramie Economic Development Corporation (LEDC), that uses a “bait and switch” scheme that illegally rides piggyback on the WIA of 1998.

5. Events WorldWide was obligated $4.4 million under the WIA of 1998 in five federal contracts.

6. Members of the LEDC generally portrayed petitioner as an upstanding officer and worthy of business trust; and paraded around the City of Laramie, petitioner and the $4.4 million federally obligated to Events WorldWide like the Clampetts were paraded in the Beverly Hillbillies.

7. Respondents A. Joe Hageman and other members of Respondent City Council, City of Laramie, County of Albany, State of Wyoming were associated in fact and or membership, ex officio and or otherwise, with the LEDC.

8. When petitioner resisted the hostile takeover of Events WorldWide, certain members of the LEDC became angry and frustrated.

9. After petitioner presented evidence in April 2005 to Respondent Governor Dave Freudenthal’s agent, Mr. Sam Western, of the unlawful WIA cabal’s efforts to force the failure of Events WorldWide by withholding obligated federal funding in an amount designed to cause the immediate destruction of Events WorldWide, petitioner was threatened in a parking lot in the City of Laramie by Tim Stamp that the unlawful WIA cabal would get even. At the time of the threat, Tim Stamp was serving as the President of the LEDC.

10. During April and May of 2005, certain members of the unlawful WIA circulated rumors that Events WorldWide was going bankrupt. This caused a mutiny among certain employees and forced Events WorldWide to break its two-week old lease agreement with Chandler Properties in May 2005;

11. On May 15, 2005, the unlawful WIA cabal sent members of Respondent Laramie Police Department to petitioner’s Laramie City home to gather intelligence regarding the success of the unlawful WIA cabal in causing the failure of Events WorldWide and to discover petitioner’s plans after the failure of Events WorldWide.

12. On May 16, 2005, Respondent Laramie Plains Community Federal Credit Union, abruptly, and without any advance warning, closed the business checking account of Events WorldWide; resulting in two checks being bounced by Respondent credit union.

13. Between May 1 and 24, 2005, Joe Rain Pavlica, partner with Grant Kupko in the ownership of Structure Industries, an entity doing business in Wyoming, was vectored to Respondent attorney A. Joe Hageman to obtain assistance in resolving the breach of the lease between Events WorldWide and Structure Industries caused by her partner in December 2004.

14. During July 2006, Ms. Pavlica personally told petitioner that when she met Respondent attorney A. Joe Hageman, it was her first time ever meeting him and that she was not concerned about the December 2004 check. Rather, she was seeking ways in which she could collect the $38,000.00 remaining on the lease breached by her partner.

15. Additionally, Ms. Pavlica personally told petitioner that Respondent attorney A. Joe Hageman told her that he and others had been “looking for some dirt” on petitioner “for some time.” It was during this May 2005 meeting that Respondent attorney A. Joe Hageman learned Joe had a check from December 2004 that Respondent attorney A. Joe Hageman could use to create “dirt” on petitioner.

16. In January 2005, Events WorldWide, through petitioner, was informed that the December 2004 check passed to Respondent Hageman was an “overpayment” as determined by attorney Laurie H. Janack of the Law Firm of Prehoda, Leonard and Janack, LLC, 1273 North 15th Street, Suite 101; P.O. Box 789; Laramie, WY 82073-0789; (307) 742-7896 Fax: (307) 742-9799.

17. Between May 20 through May 23, 2005, members of the unlawful WIA cabal caused petitioner to be vilified in the press, on television and over the Internet describing the failure of Events WorldWide due to petitioner’s poor management and not as a result of the unlawful WIA cabal’s intentional destruction of Events WorldWide by withholding the $4.4 million of federally-obligated funds.

18. Petitioner was further vilified in the press, on television and over the Internet when petitioner’s departure from the City of Laramie was made to appear as an absconder, rather than as a person forced out of town out of fear for her life.

19. The unlawful WIA cabal caused Respondent Governor Dave Freudenthal to fail to report circumstances surrounding the failure of Events WorldWide to the U.S. Secretary of Labor in violation of Titles 18 U.S.C.A. §§ 2, 3, 4, 241, 371, 1001, 1346 and 1503; 29 U.S.C. 2801 et seq.; and 31 U.S.C. 3729 et seq.

20. In an electronic mail dated June 22, 2006, Respondent attorney A. Joe Hageman admitted he was the individual personally responsible for reporting the stale December 2004 check to Respondent Richard C. Bohling on May 24, 2005 and for suggesting that Respondent Bohling get the ball rolling on the petitioner’s malicious prosecution by prosecuting the check as a crime committed by the petitioner.

21. Respondent police officer Gwendolyn K. Smith took information from Respondent County Prosecutor Richard C. Bohling; Respondent Attorney and City Councilman A. Joe Hageman; and Respondent Laramie Plains Community Credit union and others not named as Respondents and on September 26, 2005, executed a false and fraudulent police affidavit before Notary Public Jennifer Maze that painted the December 2004 check and the two checks bounced by Respondent credit union on May 16, 2005 as fruits of crimes committed by petitioner.

22. Respondent police officer Gwendolyn K. Smith's alleged false and fraudulent September 26, 2005 police affidavit referred to the existence of an unidentified "Information", to wit:

"Wherefore, affiant believes and therefore alleges that the defendant committed the offenses as alleged in the Information and affiant prays that an Arrest Warrant be issued for the defendant to appear and answer to the charges contained in the Information."

23. Respondent police officer Gwendolyn K. Smith raises a huge red flag in paragraph 2 of her alleged perjured police affidavit when she described Respondent attorney and City Councilman A. Joe Hageman's client as being "Joey Kupko" and not "Joe Rain Pavlica". The name discrepancy is great enough to suggest Respondent police officer Gwendolyn K. Smith never made contact with Respondent attorney and City Councilman A. Joe Hageman's client and check fraud victim.

24. Moreover, in an electronic mail dated June 22, 2006, Respondent attorney and City Councilman A. Joe Hageman stated, in a confusion of grammar, that he told Respondent Richard C. Bohling on May 24, 2005 that his client's name was Structure Industries and that he gave a courtesy copy of the May 24, 2005 letter to "Grant Kupko" and "Joe Pavlica", to wit:

Dear Richard:

It is my understanding from a newspaper article that there may be some charges being filed against Lynn Hust concerning her operation of Events Worldwide, Inc. My client, Structure Industries, LLC, is her former landlord and they have experienced an unpleasant event. I am transmitting and including herewith Ms. Hust's check no. 5026 in the amount of $3,650.00 which was returned by the bank non-sufficient funds which was issued for payment of the rent. The check was issued and presented in Albany County and my client's would like to receive restitution in the matter.

Please give me a call as I do not wish to infringe upon your authority but this would appear to me to be a crime and it may assist you in your investigation and/or prosecution of the overall matter.

Sincerely,
A. Joe Hageman

Encl.

Cc: Grant Kupko
Joe Pavlica

25. The fraud in Respondent police officer Gwendolyn K. Smith's affidavit under oath is obvious. Respondent Hageman claims he reported the correct name of his client to Respondent Bohling in this letter. Other red flags are set forth in petitioner's Affidavit attached to this Petition.

25. On December 20, 2005, Respondent Prosecuting Attorney Richard C. Bohling adopted Respondent Smith's alleged perjured affidavit and entered Respondent Second Judicial Circuit:

"in the name and by the authority of the State of Wyoming, informs the Court and gives the Court to understand that LYNN ANN HUST did commit the following [three] unlawful acts:

and as more particularly set forth in the Affidavit of Officer Gwen Smith filed herein."

27. Respondent Laramie Plains Community Federal Credit Union issued two letters dated May 16, 2005 and May 20, 2005 admitting its role in closing the business checking of Events WorldWide on May 16, 2005 without previous warning being given to Events WorldWide.

28. Respondents Bohling, Hageman, Smith and Laramie Plains Community Federal Credit Union, by their written actions, effectively bind themselves to an alleged partnership-in-crime to falsely prosecute petitioner for the three checks they and not petitioner created.

29. The prosecution giving rise to this petition was commenced under color of state law in the name of Respondent State of Wyoming on December 20, 2005. The initial Warrant of Arrest was issued in the name of Respondent State of Wyoming. The prosecuting attorney who commenced the prosecution in the name of Respondent State of Wyoming represented the Respondent County of Albany, Wyoming.

30. Respondent State of Washington was brought into this action under color of Federal and State Law by an application for requisition by Respondent Bohling made on the Respondent Governor of Wyoming; and a demand of the Respondent Governor of Respondent State of Wyoming having been made on the Respondent Governor of the State of Washington for a citizen of Respondent State of Washington declared to be a fugitive from justice under Title 18 U.S.C.A. § 3182.

31. Dave Freudenthal, Governor of Wyoming, was brought into this action under color of Federal and State Law by Respondent Albany County, Wyoming Prosecuting and Attorney Richard C. Bohling. On May 29, 2006, Respondent Governor Dave Freudenthal signed the warrant that demanded Respondent Washington Governor Gregoire “arrest and secure” petitioner. On May 29, 2006, Joseph B. Meyer, Secretary of State of Wyoming certified Respondent Governor Freudenthal’s signature and affixed the Seal of the State to the Demand.

32. Respondent Christine O. Gregoire, Governor of Washington, complied with the Demand of Respondent Governor Freudenthal and executed her “Governor’s Warrant of Arrest and Extradition” on June 15, 2006. The Secretary of State of Respondent State of Washington affixed the Seal of the State of Washington to this document.

33. Respondent District Court, County of Clark, State of Washington, without entertaining a hearing for habeas corpus, transferred jurisdiction to Respondent Superior Court, County of Clark, State of Washington for the illegal arrest that occurred on May 1, 2006 and the illegal arrest that occurred on June 13, 2008. Both Respondent District Court and Respondent Superior Court exercised jurisdiction they did not possess due to the absence of valid extradition warrants from the Governors from the States of Wyoming and Washington. Respondent Superior Court currently exercises custody of petitioner Lynn Ann Hust under the conditions of bail having been posted for $3,000.00.

34. Respondent District Court, County of Clark, State of Washington, without entertaining a hearing for habeas corpus, was initially responsible for establishing judicial custody of petitioner Lynn Ann Hust; petitioner Hust’s release on custody to bail; and the subsequent transfer of jurisdiction to Respondent Superior Court, Clark County, Washington for the illegal arrest that occurred on May 1, 2006 and the illegal arrest that occurred on June 13, 2008. Respondent District Court and Respondent Superior Court exercised jurisdiction they did not possess due to the absence of valid extradition warrants from Respondent Governors from Respondent States of Wyoming and Washington at the time it proceeded to act.

35. Respondent Richard C. Bohling, Albany County, Wyoming County Prosecuting and Attorney is responsible for commencing the instant alleged malicious prosecution at the instigation and insistence of Respondent Laramie Attorney and City Councilman A. Joe Hageman. In an email dated June 22, 2006, Attorney A. Joe Hageman admitted he was responsible for getting the ball rolling on the malicious prosecution on May 24, 2005. Said alleged malicious prosecution was commenced on December 20, 2005 in the Second Judicial Circuit Court, County of Albany, State of Wyoming, before the Honorable Circuit Court Judge Robert A. Castor.

35. Respondent Police Officer Gwendolyn K. Smith, City of Laramie, State of Wyoming is responsible for executing an alleged perjured police affidavit to support Respondent Laramie Attorney and City Councilman A. Joe Hageman and Respondent Prosecutor Bohling's alleged malicious prosecution. On September 26, 2005, Respondent police officer SMITH executed the alleged perjured police affidavit in the City of Laramie, State of Wyoming before Notary Public Jennifer Maze. Said alleged malicious prosecution was commenced on December 20, 2005 using Respondent Gwen Smith's alleged perjured police affidavit in the Second Judicial Circuit Court, County of Albany, State of Wyoming, before the Honorable Circuit Court Judge Robert A. Castor.

37. Respondent A. Joe Hageman, Attorney and City of Laramie, Wyoming City Council Member is responsible for the instigation and insistence of the commencement of the malicious prosecution by Respondent Richard C. Bohling, Albany County, Wyoming County Prosecuting and Attorney. In an email dated June 22, 2006, Respondent Attorney A. Joe Hageman admitted he was responsible for getting the ball rolling on the malicious prosecution on May 24, 2005. Said alleged malicious prosecution was commenced on December 20, 2005 in the Second Judicial Circuit Court, County of Albany, State of Wyoming, before the Honorable Circuit Court Judge Robert A. Castor.

38. Respondent City Council, City of Laramie, State of Wyoming exercises control of Respondent police officer Gwendolyn K. Smith and all other employees of Respondent City of Laramie Police Department through the City Manager and the City of Laramie Police Chief. Respondent City of Laramie pays the salary of police officer SMITH and the other police officers; and provides funding support for the police's daily activities.

39. Respondent County Board of Commissioners, County of Albany, State of Wyoming exercises political and administrative control over the City of Laramie; the county courts; Respondent Laramie Police Department; the Federal constitutional oath of office and employment of Respondent Prosecutor Richard C. Bohling; and the election of Respondent Prosecutor Bohling. On May (illegible), 2006, Jackie Gonzalez, County Clerk of the County of Albany, State of Wyoming, certified Prosecutor Bohling's official capacity when she executed a "COUNTY CLERK'S CERTIFICATES TO OFFICIAL CAPACITY OF COUNTY ATTORNEY, JUSTICE OF THE PEACE AND CLERK OF COURT", Extradition Form No. 5 in support of Republican Prosecutor Richard C. Bohling's extradition application to Governor Dave.

40. Respondent Laramie Police Department, City of Laramie, State of Wyoming exercises operational and administrative control over Respondent police officer Gwendolyn K. Smith and all other employees of Respondent City of Laramie Police Department through Respondent City of Laramie Police Chief. Respondent City of Laramie pays the salary of Respondent police officer SMITH and the other police officers; and provides funding support for the police department's daily activities.

41. Respondent County of Clark, State of Washington exercises political and administrative control over the county courts; Respondent City of Battle Ground, State of Washington; Respondent Battle Ground Police Department; the Federal constitutional oath of office and employment of certain persons employed by the Clark County Prosecuting Attorney; employees of the City of Battle Ground, Washington Police Department through the City of Battle Ground. Respondent City of Battle Ground pays the salary of the police officers involved in the May 1, 2006 and June 13, 2008 illegal arrests of Petitioner.

42. Respondent City Council, City of Battle Ground, State of Washington exercises operational and administrative control over the Battle Ground Police Department, City of Battle Ground through the Police Chief, City of Battle Ground Police Department. Respondent City of Battle Ground pays the salary of the police officers involved in the May 1, 2006 and June 13, 2008 illegal arrests of petitioner Petitioner.

43. Respondent Battle Ground Police Department, City of Battle Ground, State of Washington, exercises operational and administrative control over the police officers involved in the May 1, 2006 and June 13, 2008 illegal arrests of Petitioner through the Police Chief. The City of Battle Ground pays the salary of the police officers involved in the May 1, 2006 and June 13, 2008 illegal arrests of Petitioner.

44. Albany County, Wyoming Sheriff's Department, through Sheriff Jim Ponds, was responsible for: (1) service of the December 20, 2005 illegal warrant issued by Judge Robert A. Castor; (2) entering Judge Robert A. Castor's illegal warrant into the criminal computer; (3) illegally amending Judge Robert A. Castor' illegal warrant to reflect "full extradition"; (4) service of the extradition warrants issued by Wyoming Governor Dave Freudenthal on May 29, 2005 and Washington Governor Christine Gregoire on June 15, 2006; (5) delivering Governor Freudenthal's warrant to Governor Gregoire; (6) arresting and securing Petitioner in Battle Ground, Washington; and (7) custody and transportation of Petitioner to Albany County, Wyoming to stand trial for the malicious prosecution commenced by Prosecutor Richard C. Bohling on behalf of attorney and Laramie City Councilman A. Joe Hageman.

45. Respondent Clark County Sheriff's Department provided administrative support to the police abductors of the Battle Ground Police Department on May 1, 2006 when it used the wires in interstate commerce to request a copy of the false extradition warrant from the Clark County, Wyoming Sheriff's Department in an endeavor to justify the police officer's illegal arrest of Petitioner without warrant and without prior power, authority and jurisdiction given to them from The Governors of the States of Wyoming and Washington.

46. Respondent Washington State Patrol, State of Washington provided administrative support to the police abductors of the Battle Ground Police Department on May 1, 2006 when it used the wires in interstate commerce to create a "rap sheet" on petitioner based on the false extradition warrant obtained by the Clark County, Wyoming Sheriff's Department in an endeavor to justify the police officers' illegal arrest of petitioner without warrant and without prior power, authority and jurisdiction given to them from the Governors of the States of Wyoming and Washington.

47. Respondent Office of the Clark County Prosecuting Attorney provided alleged fraudulent prosecutorial support to the police abductors of the Battle Ground Police Department on May 2, 2006 and June 2, 2006 when it manufactured "boilerplate" false extradition warrants and charging documents in an endeavor to justify the police officers' illegal arrest of petitioner on May 1, 2006 without warrant and without prior power, authority and jurisdiction given to them from the Governors of the States of Wyoming and Washington in the following forms:

Manufactured document #1 (May 2, 2006):

"OFFENSE: That she, LYNN ANN HUST, in the County of Clark, State of Washington, is on Tuesday, May 2, 2006, a fugitive in Clark County, Washington and is charged with the following crimes and is subject to arrest and extradition under the following warrants, in violation of RCW 10.88.320 and RCW 10.88.330. (Fugitive From Justice)."

County/State	Warrant	Judge/Clerk of the Court
ALBANY, WY	CR-2005-198	ROBERT A CASTOR
Crimes:	FRAUD BY CHECK

The court is encouraged to note the fraud in this manufactured document since it is impossible for a fugitive to violate RCW 10.88.320 and 10.88.330.

Manufactured document #2 (June 2, 2006):

THIS MATTER having come on previously before the Court on Tuesday, May 2, 2006, and on that date the defendant having been previously committed to the County Jail for a period not exceeding thirty (30) days pursuant to RCW 10.88.340, and the Court having reviewed the matter,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that defendant is hereby committed to the County Jail until service of the Governor's Warrant, a period not exceeding sixty (60) days, to enable the arrest of the accused to be made under a Warrant of the Governor on the executive authority of Wyoming, the State having jurisdiction of the crime(s), unless the accused gives bail in the amount of $7500 provided in RCW 10.88.350, or until legally discharged.

FURTHER, IT IS ORDERED that the defendant shall return to Clark County Courthouse on Monday, July 31, 2006, at 9:00a.m. in the downstairs Arraignment Courtroom for further hearing regarding service of the Governor's Warrant to the State of Wyoming.

48. The court ought to notice here that both manufactured warrants admit the absence of the Warrants from the Governors of the States of Wyoming and Washington; and hence no power, authority or jurisdiction to "arrest and secure" Petitioner or set free on bail.

49. Respondent Second Judicial Circuit Court, acting through the Honorable Judge Robert A. Castor, on December 20, 2005, issued the "Arrest Warrant" that was used by the named and unnamed Respondent conspirators to "arrest and secure" petitioner on May 1, 2006 and again on June 13, 2008.

50. Respondent Laramie Plains Community Federal Credit Union bounced the checks used to create Counts Two and Three of Respondent Bohling's false and fraudulent Criminal Information when it abruptly closed Events WorldWide's business checking account in an endeavor to bounce checks written by Events WorldWide's chief executive officer without knowledge the account was closed.

51. This detention and restraint of liberty is unlawful because the arrest and detention is contrary to:

- (1) U.S. Const. Art. 1, Sec. 9, Cl. 2
- (2) U.S. Const. Art. 4, Sec. 1
- (3) U.S. Const. Art. 4, Sec. 2, Cl. 2

(11) Title 18 U.S.C. §§ 1073, 3182, 3195

(12) Boumediene v. Bush, 553 U.S.____, 2008 U.S. LEXIS 4887, 76 U.S.L.W. 4406, 21 Fla. L. Weekly Fed. S 329 (U.S. June 12, 2008)

52. Respondents States of Wyoming and Washington; Dave Freudenthal; Christine O. Gregoire; Richard C. Bohling; Gwendolyn K. Smith; Laramie Police Department; City of Laramie; City Council, The City of Laramie; Albany County Board of Commissioners; Second Judicial Circuit Court, County of Albany; Albany County Sheriff's Department; Battle Ground Police Department; Clark County Sheriff's Department; Office of the Clark County Prosecuting Attorney; District Court, County of Clark; Superior Court, County of Clark; County Board of Commissioners, County of Clark; and City Council, and The City of Battle Ground, have made no attempt to investigate this matter; and petitioner has been denied at every turn an opportunity present evidence as to the truth of petitioner's allegations in a state court of law following petitioner's attempts to report and initiate prosecution of the unlawful WIA cabal operating out of the LEDC.

53. Petitioner has no other adequate and speedy remedy for release from the unlawful interstate conspiracy that has caused petitioner's unlawful arrest and detention other than this petition for a writ of habeas corpus and for all other writs and remedies that will provide petitioner with the most effective relief under the conditions and circumstances set forth in this petition and documents supporting this petition.

54. On May 15, 2006, Laramie, Wyoming attorney Mary Elizabeth Galvan; 165 N. Fifth Street; Laramie, WY 82072; (307) 745-7091, fax: (307) 745-7094, made an appearance in Respondent Second Judicial Court on behalf of petitioner. Attorney Galvan was paid $12,000.00 cash; given evidence to prove the petitioner's innocence and the existence of the unlawful conspiracy to frame petitioner for crime; and was charged with filing any all legal papers necessary to make this matter go away.

55. Between May 15, 2006 and June 13, 2006, after the victim had been illegally "arrested and secured" on May 1, 2006, attorney Mary Elizabeth Galvan, of Mary Elizabeth Galvan, PC., attempted to cause the victim grandmother to unknowingly waive numerous constitutional rights by coaching the victim to voluntarily return to the State of Wyoming to discuss "bail" and other arrangements at a hearing scheduled for June 13, 2006, concluding that she could not offer assistance unless and until petitioner waived her rights to extradition or was brought back to Wyoming under the warrants of the Governors.

56. Attorney Galvan also advised her client, this petitioner, on more than one occasion that no governor's warrant was needed to deprive petitioner of her liberty and freedom.

57. Between May 15, 2006 and June 13, 2006, after the victim had been illegally “arrested and secured” on May 1, 2006, one or more principals ordered, directed and or otherwise instructed the Honorable Judge Robert Castor to prepare and preside over a welcome back hearing for the victim grandmother scheduled for June 13, 2006; said hearing was prepared and presided over by Judge Castor on June 13, 2006 twice—once in the morning at 09:00 a.m. and again at 13:00 p.m., because the victim grandmother failed to voluntarily return to Wyoming.

58. On June 13, 2006, after the victim had been illegally “arrested and secured” on May 1, 2006, attorney Mary Elizabeth Galvan, of Mary Elizabeth Galvan, PC., appeared without her client in court presided over by Judge Robert A. Castor twice—once in the morning at 09:00 a.m. and again at 13:00 p.m., because the victim grandmother failed to appear at 09:00 a.m.

59. While attorney Mary Elizabeth Galvan was endeavoring to cause her client to waive extradition or voluntarily return to Wyoming, Respondents Freudenthal, Gregoire, Bohling, and Smith were engaged in the following parallel activities to cover and conceal petitioner’s unlawful arrest on May 1, 2006:

On May 9, 2006, alleged Laramie police officer Gwendolyn K. Smith executed before a “Notary Public” an “AFFIDAVIT OF COMPLAINING WITNESS” in support of Republican Prosecutor Richard C. Bohling’s extradition application to Governor Dave.

On May 17, 2006 the Honorable Albany County Circuit Court Judge Robert A. Castor signed a “JUSTICE’S CERTIFICATE TO COMPLAINT AND WARRANT” in support of Republican Prosecutor Richard C. Bohling’s extradition application to Governor Dave.

On May 17, 2006, alleged coconspirator Republican County Prosecutor Richard C. Bohling executed before a Notary Public Wyoming Extradition Form No. 1, “IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION OF RICHARD C. BOHLING, COUNTY AND PROSECUTING ATTORNEY OF ALBANY COUNTY, WYOMING, FOR A REQUISITION.

On May (illegible), 2006, the Honorable Albany County Clerk Jackie Gonzales executed a “COUNTY CLERK’S CERTIFICATES TO OFFICIAL CAPACITY OF COUNTY ATTORNEY, JUSTICE OF THE PEACE AND CLERK OF COURT” extradition form in support of Republican Prosecutor Richard C. Bohling’s extradition application to Governor Dave.

On May 29, 2006, the Honorable Wyoming Democratic Governor David Freudenthal authorized and empowered Sheriff Jim Pond and/or his duly authorized designee “to proceed to the State of Washington for the purpose of demanding and receiving from the proper authorities of the said State, LYNN ANN HUST....”

On May 29, 2006, the Honorable Wyoming Secretary of State Joseph B. Meyer certified the official capacities and signatures of “the Honorable Dave Freudenthal”; “the Honorable Robert A. Castor”; and “Jackie Gonzales” in support of Republican Prosecutor Richard C. Bohling’s extradition application to Governor Dave, and Governor Dave’s extradition demand to be made on the Honorable Washington Democratic Governor Christine Gregoire.

On June 15, 2006, the Honorable Washington Democratic Governor Christine O. Gregoire signed and issued the “GOVERNOR’S WARRANT OF ARREST AND EXTRADITION”.

60. No other applications for a writ of habeas corpus and other effective relief have previously been made to any other court or judge.
